No DART service on Thanksgiving Day

The Des Moines Area Regional Transit Authority will not operate bus service on Thursday, November 22, in observation of the Thanksgiving holiday. DART Central Station will be closed, as well.

Service will resume Friday, November 23. That is the same day that several major service changes take effect, including the replacement of the Walnut Street Transit Mall with the new DART Central Station.

Additional information about the service changes and the new station is available at www.ridedart.com.

The Des Moines Area Regional Transit Authority is the public transportation provider that serves Polk County.
